

Baking Show Drawing Challenges

Combine art and food in this fun drawing challenge for kids! These baking show themed drawing challenges can be done individually, but they're a lot of fun to do with a group. Give kids a set amount of time to complete their drawing, and then have a group presentation time! Let each child show their drawing and explain what they made. This is fabulous for not just drawing skills, but also speaking skills and listening skills while they watch others give their presentations.
